ITINERARY

Day 1 ~ Home City ~ Mexico City ~ Shrine of Our Lady of Guadalupe: Today we'll board our scheduled flight from Dulles to Mexico City, Mexico. This afternoon we make our first visit to the Shrine of Our Lady of Guadalupe – the Patroness of the Americas. It was here that the Blessed Virgin Mary appeared to Juan Diego on Tepayac Hill on December 9, 1531, to ask for the construction of a church in her honor. This Indian peasant brought to his Bishop some roses that he received from Our Lady as a sign of her request. As the flowers fell from his cloak to the ground, the image of the Blessed Virgin was miraculously impressed on the simple garment before their eyes. Located above the main altar is the tilma of Juan Diego which, to this day, has been venerated in the Basilica of Guadalupe. Following our celebration of Mass, ample time will be given for prayer and reflection along with the opportunity to climb Tepayac Hill. By late afternoon, we arrive in at our hotel for a four-night stay.

Day 2 ~ Mexico City Sights ~ Ruins of Teotihuacan: - Begin today with a guided sightseeing tour of Mexico City. Visit the church where Juan Diego was baptized, the Metropolitan Cathedral, and the National Palace. This afternoon we journey northeast of the city to the ruins of Teotihuacan to see the “Place of the Sun and Moon,” Temple of Quetzalcoatl, and other fascinating ancient structures. Later today, enjoy free time to explore the local craft markets.

Day 3 ~ Tlaxcala ~ Shrine of San Miguel del Milagro ~ Puebla: This morning we travel east out of Mexico City to Tlaxcala and visit the healing shrine of San Miguel del Milagro. It was here in 1631 when St. Michael the Archangel appeared to Diego Lazaro and provided a spring of miraculous water which is known to have exceptional powers of exorcism. Continue on to the colonial city of Puebla, known for its pottery works. Enjoy a visit to the city's magnificent cathedral which rivals any in Europe. Later in the day, we return to our hotel in Mexico City for the night.

Day 4 ~ Tulpetlac Church ~ Shrine of Our Lady of Guadalupe: This morning we celebrate Mass at Tulpetlac Church, site of the fifth Marian apparition to Juan Diego. It was also here where Blessed Juan Diego's uncle, Bernadino, was miraculously healed. We will return to the Shrine of Our Lady of Guadalupe and Tepayac Hill for our final afternoon. Gather this evening for a special farewell dinner.

Day 5 ~ Journey Home: Following breakfast, we will be transferred to the airport for our departure home.
