ITINERARY

Day 1: Cleveland – The Golden Lamb – Newport Aquarium, Kentucky

Travel aboard a deluxe highway coach to northern Kentucky. En route we stop in Lebanon, known for its Colonial atmosphere, antiques and specialty shops. We dine at the historic (1803) Golden Lamb Inn which houses an extensive collection of Shaker Furniture and other items, including toys from the late 1890's. This afternoon we visit the Newport Aquarium which displays thousands of aquatic creatures from every continent and ocean. See Asian small-clawed otters, Galapagos and Egyptian tortoise, rare exotic shark species, Penguin Palooza, Gator Alley, Poison Dart Frogs and much more. Later, free time at Newport-on-the-Levee complex (including the Purple People Pedestrian Bridge). Enjoy a delightful two-night stay in Newport, Kentucky – our hotel is located right on the water.

Day 2: Noah's Ark Encounter – Ohio River Cruise – Main Strasse Village

Breakfast included. Today we journey south to Williamstown, Kentucky and to the Ark Encounter. Enjoy exploring one of the most impressive new attractions in the country. Following the design and dimensions given to Noah in the Old Testament, over 100 skilled Amish carpenters labored over six years in building the largest timber structure in the world! Later this afternoon embark on a delightful sightseeing cruise on the picturesque Ohio River. Enjoy beautiful views, remarkable nature and historic narration throughout. A special dinner is included this evening in Main Strasse Village – a restored 19th century German neighborhood. Return to hotel for the final overnight.

Day 3: Basilica of the Assumption – IKEA – Cleveland

Breakfast included. This morning we visit the magnificent Basilica of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary which houses the largest spiritual stained-glass window in the world. Later today we begin our journey home back into Ohio. This afternoon we stop at the new IKEA for lunch on own and a bit of free time to explore the Scandinavian Superstore. Return home by dinnertime.
