ITINERARY

Day 1: Home ~ Bennington, Vermont ~ Green Mountains ~ Bennington Museum ~ Battle Monument: Travel aboard a deluxe motorcoach across New York State and into southern Vermont. Rest and meal stops will be made periodically as we travel. By early afternoon we arrive in historic Bennington which is located in a lovely valley along the foothills of the Green Mountains. Bennington's three covered bridges and numerous Victorian homes are reminders of times gone by. Visit Bennington Museum which features paintings, belongings and personal memorabilia of Grandma Moses. The museum also showcases a renowned collection of 19th-century ceramics produced by local companies. Later this afternoon we stop at Bennington Battle Monument which was the tallest battle monument in the world when completed in 1891. Later today arrive at our hotel for the overnight. Gather this evening at a local restaurant for a welcome dinner.

Day 2: Hildene Estate ~ Woodstock, Vermont ~ Quechee Gorge ~ Waterbury, Vermont: This morning we motor into the heart of the Green Mountains of Vermont. Visit beautiful Hildene Estate, the impressive mansion of Robert Todd Lincoln. Enjoy free time for lunch and shopping in Woodstock, Vermont. Famous world-wide as the quintessential New England Village, Woodstock has been described as "The Prettiest Small Town in America" by Ladies Home Journal. In the downtown area you'll find quaint shops and galleries, up and down staircases, in alleys, and along hidden side streets. Later today we visit Quechee Gorge - the Grand Canyon of Vermont. Continue north into the White Mountains of Vermont and to the town of Waterbury for a delightful two-night stay. Gather for dinner at a local restaurant.

Day 3: Barre, Vermont ~ Rock of Ages ~ Montpelier, Vermont ~ Ben & Jerry's ~ Trapp Family Lodge: This morning following breakfast we travel to Barre and visit the Rock of Ages quarry. The Visitor Center showcases many interesting exhibits, historic photographs, locally made granite gifts and stoneware from around the world. Watch talented sculptors finishing, cutting and polishing. Come see where the WW II Memorial Aches were fabricated. Proceed to Montpelier to visit the Vermont State House, one of the nation's oldest and best preserved state capitols. Following a lunch break we travel to nearby Stowe and visit the Trapp Family Lodge – a mountain resort in the European tradition by the family that inspired "The Sound of Music." Later today visit Ben and Jerry's Ice Cream Waterbury. The tour includes demonstrations of each step in the process of making ice cream. Later this evening return to our lodge in Waterbury for a leisurely evening.

Day 4: Burlington, Vermont ~ Lake Champlain Crossing ~ Journey Home: This morning following breakfast we travel west to Burlington and board a ferry for a scenic cruise across Lake Champlain. Arrive in Port Kent, New York and head south through the rugged Adirondack Mountains en route home. Rest and meal stops will be made periodically.
